LL. D, Vol. 8 1. Should Scripture, previously ascertained to be the Word of God, affirm a connection between any two events which lie beyond the reach of my own observation, I would instantly admit the truth of the connection, however ignorant of its reason or its propriety. I may not be able to understand it as a principle, yet that ought not to prevent my reliance upon it as a fact which I received on the ground of credible information. I might know not how it is, yet have perfect reason for knowing that so it is. And the explicit declarations of the Bible, that by faith we are saved - that he who believeth hath everlasting life - that he who believeth not shall not see life, leave no room for doubting that there is a real, even though it should for ever remain an inexplicable connection, a sequence, if we may so term it, however mysterious, between a man s faith and his salvation. 2. But...
