Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Maryland Colonization Journal, Vol. 1 of 1: Baltimore, June 15, 1841 Such is a brief abstract of the principles set forth in the resolutions of the Convention: and to carry out measures necessarily consequent thereon - the active and hearty co-operation of all classes and associations of men, and of every individual of the State, is most earnestly desired. We speak not now only as the organ of the Board of Managers, or of the association called the Colonization Society, but of the people of the State of Maryland. The people have spoken - let them be obeyed. At the shortest period possible, agents will be despatched into the several counties and districts of the State, in order to carry out fully the letter and intent of the resolutions of the Convention, and we cannot but feel that they will receive the most ready and prompt assistance in all their labours from every individual attending the late Convention. Let those who feel the deep interest they so lately evinced in the matter take measures in advance for forming auxiliaries and obtaining annual subscriptions; but more particularly in obtaining subscriptions for the packet in which so much energy and enthusiasm are felt. Let every one assist the exertions of the clergy in obtaining fourth of July contributions, by spreading information that collections will be taken up, and let none go to church that day empty handed. Even a little by each individual, when the application is so generally made, will form in the aggregate a large sum, and go far towards the purchase of the vessel. Gentlemen: In pursuance of the duty imposed on them by...
