LEADERSHIP STRATEGIES FOR SUCCESSFUL SCHOOLWIDE INCLUSION: THE STAR APPROACH

Brookes Publishing Co, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 272 x 213 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Effective, schoolwide inclusion ensures the best outcomes for all students but how can school teams knock down the barriers to inclusion and make sure it s happening across all classrooms? This concise book gives principals and other school leaders the solution they ve been waiting for: a clear framework for leading inclusion efforts, monitoring their success, and facilitating consistent use of best practices. Developed by two veteran special education experts with a combined 70 years of experience, this guidebook breaks the inclusion process into concrete, manageable goals and shows how to accomplish each one by applying the authors four-step STAR model. Using this proven, research-based model, school leaders will collaborate with all members of the education team to implement Response to Intervention to help all students make progress toward learning standards align students IEPs with the general curriculum incorporate Universal Design principles into curricular materials and instructional methods select appropriate accommodations and modifications conduct effective screening and progress monitoring for all students include parents as collaborative partners prepare students to direct their own IEP processes get general educators fully on board with and involved in inclusion make the most of the school principal s leadership maximize the benefits of peer supports To meet each of these critical goals, school teams will refer to the book s handy STAR organizer, which lays out in chart form the specific steps needed to accomplish each task. Then they ll take action with suggested inclusion strategies and helpful photocopiable forms and tools, including a sample vision statement, an IEP meeting feedback form, a survey on professional development priorities, and self-assessment tools so schools can see how effectively they re implementing the STAR model. The ultimate resource for education teams as they lead the way...
