R. 14157 At this time. Mr. Chairman and gentlemen of the Senate Finance Committee, on behalf of the American Legion and the other veteran organizations here to-day, I desire to express our appreciation for this early opportunity you have given us to appear on the adjusted compensation bill. The American Legion is composed of more than 2,000,000 men and women who have seen service in the World War. They are unanimous on this adjusted compensation bill, and at their recent convention in Cleveland, held September 27, 28, and 29, the delegates from every State throughout the country, after full discussion on the floor of the convention, adopted the following resolution. [Reading:] Resolved, That the American Legion, in national convention here assembled, gives its unqualified approval of House bill No. 14157, which passed the House of Representatives by a vote of 259 to 92 May 29, 1920. and which is now pending before the Senate, and which provides for the optional plan of either- 1. Adjusted service pay, based on length of service; 2. Adjusted service certificates maturing in 20 years, based on length of service; 3. Vocational training; 4. Farm or home aid; or 5. Land settlement, for which 31 States have already made, through their State legislatures, provision for cooperation: And be it further Resolved, That the American Legion, in national convention here assembled, commends and approves the action of the national executive committee and the national beneficial legislative committee in formulating and presenting this adjusted compensation legislation to Congress: And be it...
