Excerpt: . . . taken away the independence and self-government of the local churches of the western lands, she instituted the system of papal despotism, concentrating in the hands of the Pope unlimited authority. Besides this she accepted many new dogmas, such as the procession and from the Son of the Holy Spirit, sprinkling in baptism, the depriving of the laity of the holy wine in the Eucharist, the immaculate conception of the Virgin Mother, and the infallibility of the Pope. And in many other things the Western Church made innovations, such as in the compulsory celibacy of the clergy of all the grades, as also in the imposition in worship of the dead Latin language upon all peoples. Little by little the high-handedness of the Pope reached such a point that he wished to enslave even the emperors and kings of the West; and through the celebrated courts of the Holy Inquisition, which the wickedness of the Pope and his tools devised, thousands of men as alleged heretics were burned at the stake. On account of these great errors of the Western Church, when the haughty papal legates deposited upon the Altar of St. Sophia a fierce anathema. Church, there arose during the 16th century the so-called Protestants, under the leadership of Luther in Germany (1517) and of Zwingli and Calvin in Switzerland, who broke off from the Western Church. But these men again, who so powerfully protested against the errors (excesses) of the Western Church, in fleeing...
