First Plays By A A Milne Classic Drama Alan Alexander Milne (18 January 1882 31 January 1956) was an English author, best known for his books about the teddy bear Winnie-the-Pooh and for various childrens poems. Milne was a noted writer, primarily as a playwright, before the huge success of Pooh overshadowed all his previous work. A. A. Milne was born in Hampstead, London to parents Vince Milne, who was Scottish, and Sarah Marie Milne (ne Heginbotham) and grew up at Henley House School, 67 Mortimer Road (now Crescent), Kilburn, a small public school run by his father. One of his teachers was H. G. Wells, who taught there in 188990. Milne attended Westminster School and Trinity College, Cambridge, 4 where he studied on a mathematics scholarship. While there, he edited and wrote for Granta, a student magazine. He collaborated with his brother Kenneth and their articles appeared over the initials AKM. Milnes work came to the attention of the leading British humour magazine Punch, where Milne was to become a contributor and later an assistant editor. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
