RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 36 pages. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)49244189 Subject: Competition -- United States. Excerpt: . . . We appreciate Mr. Ellis being here today and we anticipate that his testimony will focus on the business environment and challenges facing SBC, rather than on any legal battles that may be ongoing. We anticipate that our other witnesses on the second panel will have a similar focus. One final note before I do turn to Senator Kohl. As some of you may be aware, Senator Kohls basketball team, the Milwaukee Bucks, successfully advanced to the second round of the NBA playoffs just last night. We all want to congratulate Senator Kohl and, in his honor, we are all using Milwaukee Bucks pens. Im sure that if any of you want to see the Senator afterwards and want a pen, Im sure that Senator Kohl has a few more. Senator Kohl. Congratulations. STATEMENT OF HON. HERBERT KOHL, A U. S. SENATOR FROM THE STATE OF WISCONSIN Senator Kohl. Thank you very much, Senator DeWine. We appreciate your holding this hearing here today. More than 5 years have passed since the Telecommunications Act of 1996 became law, so this is a good time to see what progress has been made to bring true competition to telecommunications. The main goal of the Act was to bring real competition to all aspects of communications services, particular to local telephone service. But with the regional bells still controlling about 93 percent of the local phone market, and rates remaining steady over the last 10 years, no one can claim that the Act has been a roaring success. We have been waiting for local phone competition for 5 years, and we are still being kept on hold. As we...
