Not illustrated. 1919 Excerpt: .on Friday afternoon when the varsity is not using it for practice. Such intra-mural athletics may pass as an excuse but nothing more. They do little good and after a game or two the players drop out because of the lack of interest. Enthusiasm cannot be kept up in something that is given little importance in the school. They should be made as much a part of the school as the inter-scholastic athletics so far as the boys are concerned. What is good for the few is good for all. All have an equal right to the use of the school property, the gymnasium and the athletic field and to the teachers assistance. To abolish interscholastic athletics in order to promote the mass idea would be a serious mistake. A few colleges have tried the plan but with very questionable success. Love of contest is not enough to gat our high school boys to do their best and unless they do their best the interest soon lags, and little good is accomplished. There must not only be a good school spirit but a general athletic spirit in the school. Every boy will want to play football if he is thinking football, and he will not be thinking football unless there is a school team. There must be a standard. Good playing as well as a knowledge of the rules is gained by associating with and observing the players on the regular school team. Then there must...
