Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Proceedings of American Numismatic Society: For the Sixty-First Annual Meeting and List of Officers and Members The sixty-first annual meeting of The American Numismatic Society was called to order at 3.20 P. M. on January 11th, 1919. Mr. Henry Russell Drowne presiding. The reading of the minutes of the last regular meeting of the Society and of the Intervening evenings was approved. The address of President Newell was read by the Secretary. President s Address. Gentlemen - It seems presumptuous indeed for me to submit a report, however short and necessarily superficial, on the activities of our Society during the eventful year of 1918, because I have spent a little more than hair of this year away from New York as an humble member of the United Slates Army. Our Secretary, Mr. Noe, was able to keep me in touch with events in the Society until in September, when he too left for The Coast Artillery, O. T. C. and after that date Mr. Wood or Mr. Wyman sent In reports from time to time. Most fortunately for the Society s best interests, the collapse of Germany not only prevented the threatened and narrowly averted escape into service of the last two gentlemen, but it also soon brought back to us Mr. Noe, who resumed his duties on November 25th. Mr. Reilly returned in October, resuming his own numismatic researches and official duties, and more than filling the spot left vacant by my removal to Washington. Thus by correspondence these gentlemen have untiringly kept me informed as to the activities, plans, and Interests of the Society, and therefore I have this excuse to present you...
