4 THE EASY WAY

America Star Books, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .An old man escapes from the retirement home his son and daughter-in-law have placed him in and returns to NY to once more become the man he was. A Jewish lady yells out of her apartment window down to a man delivering ice, that one act is the beginning of a story of love and sacrifice. A young homeless girl huddles in a doorway in lower Manhattan and begs for money to feed her child little does she know how she will change the life of a rich Wall Street financier. Melodious sounds of a violin being played fill the canyons of the upper west side of Manhattan; the musician is a phantom driving a world renowned violinist and his wife to distraction trying to find out his or her identity.
