

The Blind Fiddler

By Marie Jones

Samuel French Ltd, United Kingdom, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .It is the 1970s in Northern Ireland. Pat and Mary Gormley are an ill-matched couple: Pat is a laid-back publican, a storyteller and musician, whereas Mary is determinedly upwardly mobile, nagging at their children to succeed and moving the family away from the pub as soon as she can. Looking back thirty years later, their daughter Kathleen tries to piece together the family's story so that she can understand what drove it apart; in doing so, she uncovers an important family secret. The Blind Fiddler is a moving, funny and insightful portrait of a family, with storytelling and traditional Irish music enriching the atmosphere and providing a sense of historical continuity.
