Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Modern Research as Illustrating the Bible The Schweieh Trust was founded in 1907 in memory of the late Mr. Leopold Schweieh, of Paris. The Trust Fund is to be devoted to the furtherance of research in the archaeology, art, history, languages, and literature of Ancient Civilization with reference to Biblical Study ; and a portion of the annual income of the Trust has been appropriated to providing not less than three lectures to be delivered annually on some subject coming within the scope of the objects which the Trust is intended to promote. The Council of the British Academy having done me the honour of inviting me to deliver the introductory course of Schweieh Lectures, I thought that a suitable line for me to take would be, firstly (Lecture I) to give some account of the progress that had been made during the past century in the principal branches of research enumerated in the Trust deed, and afterwards (Lectures II and III) to give an outline of the new knowledge respecting Palestine which had been obtained recently, partly from inscriptions, and partly from the excavations in Palestine itself, which had formed during the last ten years such an important and interesting development of archaeological investigation. It will be understood that in my accounts of the excavations in Palestine I am dependent entirely upon the reports given by the excavators themselves. I have endeavoured to summarize, as well as I could within the limits at my disposal, the principal results which had been gained: but it must be remembered that, where there are no inscriptions telling us distinctly what the objects found were, mistakes are possible,...
