And on his grave they shed their tears, --the tears Of brother, and of son! Slowly, they turned Away! No spoken word the silence broke, As they retraced their way into the camp! And, when the people saw that Aaron did Not come, they knew that he was dead! The fact Was told throughout the camp, --and so they mourned The death of God s High priest for thirty days! The Cloud removed again! And now, to shun The land of Edom, they pursued a way Averse to their desire;--and then again, The people fell into despondent mood, --And made severe complaint, of everything;--Of Moses, and of God! They loathed their food Divinely given! They feared they here would die Of thirst, in this wide desert waste! They brought Upon themselves the anger of the Lord! And poisonous serpents came into the camp--Swift,...
