Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.A work of poetry and a kind of essay and composed of three poems, the piece expounds the various scenes sequel to gruesome instances of wars. But a ceasefire has been agreed upon, and consequently a peace accord. Amidst serenity a brand new tussle erupts between a soldier and a rat. The temptation on part of the soldier to engage in another warfare is only very glaring. How would soldiers trample upon rats? Why would the strong war against the poor and weak? Can both groups cohabit? Oyoyo depicts a hilarious scene where there arises singing, dancing and ecstatic merriment involving the chanting of the word, oyoyo several times by mostly children. To them oyoyo means extremely good. The palindrome in this context connotes a sort of approval, commendation and utmost seal of satisfaction about an individual or circumstance. In this work of poetry Oyoyo tends to infer that peace is the best ingredient for a progressive society and the third eye stays awake to create peace even when soldiers themselves fall asleep.
